UPDATE: Missing teen returned home unharmed Police seek public's help to locate missing Columbia teen

Howard County police are asking for the public's help to locate a missing teen from Columbia.

Jaylen Gallman, 13, was last seen leaving her home in the 10000 block of Daystar Court in Columbia on Dec. 28.

Her family reported her missing when she didn't return home as expected. Police are concerned for her welfare as she has a health condition that requires medication.

Ms. Gallman is described as a black female, five feet one inch tall, 155 pounds, with brown eyes, black and pink hair, and a nose ring. She was last seen wearing a black jump suit with white stripes and may also have a black peacoat.

Anyone with information should call 911.
